LEAVE OF ABSENCE...

AHRC members were sad to learn last week that Karen Sexton will be taking a 6 month leave of absence from the club. Karen is one of our power members and will be sorely missed. See you soon Karen!

Poker players ready to "Ante Up"

Anaheim Hills' annual Texas Hold-em Poker Tournament, is shaping up to be one of our best to date.

Player reservations are coming in steadily and AHRC members are spreading the word to other clubs who are responding to the call to "Ante Up," for our biggest fundraiser of the year.

Set for April 25, at Showroom Classics, 855 N. Shepard Street, (adjacent to Camelot), in Anaheim, the new venue with an array of exotic cars on display will add to the excitement of the evening.

Mark and Gail Roy have signed up a table of eight from the Anaheim Noon Rotary, and Diane Reed has six players looking for two more to complete a table. Margaret Hoein has been buttering up the Yorba Linda Club each time she picks up Lobsterfest tickets for us.

If we continue at this pace, we could reach our goal of 96 players in time for the first shuffle of the evening. Do remind those you talk to that they save $5 each when they sign up for a table. And, that the money goes to our community service projects.

Group Study Exchange Visitors Leave Saturday

German journalists Dagmar "Dagi" Korpany, Brigitte Saar, Aaron Buck, and Kathrin Unverdorben and team leader Max Klinger, return to Lower Bavaria, Germany on Saturday, following a Bon Voyage party Friday night in Long Beach.

"Dagi" an editor/writer for the newspaper Dingolfiner Anzeiger was Diane Reed's delightful house-guest, for a week. Aaron Buck stayed with Nev Roseman's family.

While in So-Cal for a month, the visitors spoke at several clubs and visited nearly every major attraction. Among the highlights were: Disneyland, an Angels Game, the Crystal Cathedral, Balboa, Laguna, Universal Studios, Hollywood, the Pelican Hills Resort, NBC Studios, the Kodak Theater and the Queen Mary.

The journalists also enjoyed tours of: the OC Register, the Channel 5 Morning News, and the Real Orange. At each of these sites they had an opportunity to visit with American journalists as Dagi did, at a dinner Diane Reed hosted.
